

Hope for Religious Life

My Hope for Religious Life in this moment of history is to continue to respond to what is being asked of us; first, is to evolve according to the calling of the signs of the times, evolving charism and the movement and leading of the Spirit; second is to create a community of hope and continue to be a joyful messenger of the good news and beauty”.