

Hope for Religious Life

My hope for Religious Life in this moment of history is founded on my belief in the call and living it out authentically. The hope would be expressed through focusing on ongoing formation in all aspects of growing to wholeness, especially delving into Word of God so as to live the Joy of the Gospel.