

Mercy Integral Ecology Fellowship Presentation Celebrations 2023

An important milestone of the Mercy Integral Ecology Fellowship program is the personal project presentation, held near the end of the program. Each Fellow, working closely with a mentor, is asked to choose a pertinent Integral Ecology in order to undertake a personal project throughout the year. This will address a need impacting their local area but may be something occurring in many other places as well (thinking of the phrase “think global, act local”).

These projects, along with the story of the process of the fellows, will be presented to a general public audience on Zoom on three occasions in November. Each presentation will take 15 minutes. A summary of the program participants, times and their area of interest is below. All welcome.
