

CATALYST FOR RENEWAL

Seeking renewal through conversation.

SR ELIZABETH YOUNG RSM & GAIL GILL
MC: GERALDINE DOOGUE AO
"WOMEN DEACONS: WHY NOT NOW?"

WEDNESDAY 13TH MARCH 2024

7.00pm - 8.30pm

THE CRYPT ST PATRICK'S CHURCH
GROSVENOR STREET, THE ROCKS

Elizabeth Young rsm is an Instituted Catechist and Parish Life Coordinator in Wilcannia, NSW. She also has the diocesan roles of Director for Catholic Mission; secretary of the Diocesan Pastoral Council; secretary of the Diocesan Ecology, Peace and Justice Commission; and local coordinator for the Plenary Council/Synod. In 2021, Elizabeth founded the blogsite Liturgy on the Margins and the group Australian Catholics Exploring the Diaconate to highlight existing diaconal ministry and to encourage new solutions to respond to liturgical and sacramental needs.

Gail Gill has worked in Catholic education in Sydney and Broken Bay for over 30 years as a teacher and also in leadership positions. In 2009 she became a consecrated member of a ministry the then Bishop, David Walker, had established for women in the diocese. She was also a member of the Broken Bay formation team for the permanent diaconate until her recent retirement and continues to engage with groups such as Australian Catholics Exploring Diaconate and Australian Women Preach.
