

Women in the Gospels

ELIZABETH DOWLING RSM
3-10 MAY 2024

In this retreat, we will explore a selection of stories from across the gospels, focussing on the characterisation of women in these stories. Women's discipleship, faith and initiative will be highlighted.

Elizabeth Dowling is a Sister of Mercy who lives in Ballarat, Victoria. She has a lifelong commitment to education, working in secondary, tertiary and adult education settings. After completing doctoral studies in 2005, Elizabeth lectured in Biblical Studies at Australian Catholic University for ten years. She has published a monograph, Taking Away the Pound: Women, Theology and the Parable of the Pounds in the Gospel of Luke (London: T&T Clark International, 2007), and many journal articles and book chapters on the gospels. Currently, she is offering biblical workshops and retreats across the country.

Santa Casa is a beautiful retreat centre located in Queenscliff, Victoria, where you will enjoy not only the retreat itself, but the venue which provides comfortable accommodation and the serenity of the seaside.
