The ACSL Board

The ACSL Board provides strategic leadership and oversight of the work of the ACSL Company, which supports Church entities to fulfill their regulatory responsibilities in providing safe environments for children and adults at risk in their encounters with the Church. ACSL's responsibilities are outlined in the constitution of the company.

Expressions of Interest are now open for the position of ACSL Non- Executive Director, to provide key input into the direction and governance of the organisation and support its commitment to fostering a culture of safety within the Catholic church in Australia. ACSL supports diversity in its Board and staff appointments.

An ideal candidate will have the following attributes:

1. A knowledge of and commitment to the values and culture of safeguarding within the Catholic church.
2. Board experience
3. Good working knowledge of corporate governance and risk management principles and practice.
4. A strategic focus - able to look beyond the current environment to identify new approaches to deliver value in the future.
5. Experience, skills, and qualifications in areas such as human resources, legal, finance, accounting, health, education, human services, or professional standards.
6. Demonstrated success in collaboration and building connections to harness the collective strengths and resources of the organisation and its Board.
7. A willingness to commit time to preparing and participating in Board and Committee meetings and activities.

Other desirable qualifications and requirements are:

- Current Working with Children's Check or equivalent
- Australian Director Identification Number
- Working knowledge of the National Child Safety framework, guidelines and regulations and related legislation.

Board remuneration is available for the successful applicant. For further information about the position, please contact Ursula Stephens on 0407228727 or ursula.stephens@acsltd.org.au

To register your interest, please send your resume and covering letter responding to the above by COB 5 August 2022.
