INVITE YOU TO:

a dialogue with

James
Alison

on diversity and inclusion

James Alison is a Catholic theologian, priest and author. He earned his doctorate in theology from the Jesuit Faculty in Belo Horizonte, Brazil in 1994 and is a systematic theologian by training. He bases his thinking and writing on the French thinker Rene Girard. He is well known for his firm but patient insistence on truthfulness in matters of diverse sexualities as an ordinary part of basic Christianity, and for his pastoral outreach through finding ways of engaging people in dialogue around diversity and inclusion.

You are invited to join your colleagues in the Edmund Rice network to explore how diversity and inclusion are given expression in our local networks.

"Let us seek out others and embrace the world as it is, without fear of pain or a sense of inadequacy, because there we will discover all the goodness that God has planted in human hearts."
