

DAILY CHAPTER BULLETIN #11 – Thursday, February 3rd, 2022

The day began with meditation and the Mass of the Holy Spirit, invoking the Spirit on our proceedings today as we discern who would best serve the Congregation for the next six years.

Our morning prayer had as its theme “” and we enjoyed the lyrics and the images from the song “Mother Earth” by Karliene, available at <https://youtu.be/caIo1UGSDgw>

The rest of the morning and the early afternoon was spent in the discernment process with group-work and periods of reflective silence.

In a prayerful atmosphere, this afternoon the following Brothers were elected to the new Congregation Leadership Team:

Congregation Leader:	Peter Clinch (Oceania)
Deputy Leader:	John Casey (Europe)
Councillors:	Senan D’Souza (Africa)
	David Ryan Silva (India)
	Hugo Cáceres (North American – Latin American Area)

From left to right:

Hugo Cáceres, John Casey, Peter Clinch, Senan D’Souza, David Ryan Silva