

“How is a call to the Religious Life exercised? Sister Catharine Courtney’s beautifully written memoir of her remarkable life deals purposefully with this key question.”

HELEN GREGORY, HISTORIAN, QUEENSLAND

An Unusual Life — Changes in a Religious Order: An Insider’s Perspective, 1951–2021

by Catharine Courtney rsm • 102 pages, illustrated, ISBN 978-0-6480665-3-8

Published by: Sisters of Mercy Brisbane Congregation, Australia

www.brisbanemercy.org.au

SISTER MARY BENEDICT was the religious name taken by CATHARINE COURTNEY when she became a Sister of Mercy in the Brisbane Congregation more than 70 years ago. In this book she explains how such an ‘Unusual Life’ may appear to both outsiders and insiders.

REFLECTING on her roles in education, leadership and social justice during that time, the short answer is that “it is the story of God’s Providence at work in my life...”

$20 PLUS P&H

Purchase online at: <https://www.brisbanemercy.org.au/an-unusual-life/>

or email: community@mercybrisbane.org

• AUTOBIOGRAPHY • SOCIAL JUSTICE • CATHOLIC RELIGIOUS ORDERS FOR WOMEN